

IELTS EXAM REGISTRATION FORM

Terms & Conditions

- The Exam Preparation & Testing House FZCO facilitates CD-IELTS test registration strictly as an optional convenience for candidates. We expressly disclaim any liability or involvement regarding test administration, scoring, technical issues, or the distribution of results. Alternatively, candidates may choose to register directly via the official exam provider's portal while designating our facility as their testing location.
- In the event of a cancellation due to low registration, the British Council will reassign affected candidates to the nearest available testing center. Candidates will be notified accordingly; therefore, it is mandatory to provide a valid email address and mobile phone number upon registration.
- It doesn't matter if you use our registration service or book the test yourself online—everyone gets the exact same treatment and experience on test day at our center.
- Candidates opting to use the TEPTH registration service will incur an administrative fee of ₹150.00, which is applied in addition to the standard CD-IELTS exam fee.
- Your Speaking Test may take place either face-to-face with an examiner or via video call. We will inform you of the intended format before finalizing your booking, though please note that the British Council must ultimately approve it.
- We are not responsible if we cannot run the test or fulfill our duties due to extreme situations entirely out of our hands. This includes major emergencies like natural disasters, wars, or unexpected power and technical blackout.
- Please note that our obligations are strictly limited to the initial booking of your IELTS test, and candidates assume full responsibility for managing any subsequent modifications including rescheduling & cancellations.
